Washington, DC-Area Wealth Management Firm Recognized Nationally The Monitor Group named one of the best in Wealth Manager magazine

McLean, VA (July 26, 2007) – For more than 25 years, The Monitor Group – a McLean, VA-based wealth management firm – has provided affluent individuals and families with unparalleled financial planning services. As a result, a major industry magazine has identified The Monitor Group as a top firm nationwide.

In a ranking by Wealth Manager magazine, a highly-regarded industry publication, The Monitor Group has been recognized as a leading wealth management provider in the “7th Annual Top Dog Report” – an official ranking of 464 financial advisory firms nationwide. Out of the top ten firms reported in the Washington, DC area, The Monitor Group was 4th overall and the top firm in Northern Virginia. The magazine released the results of this program in their July 2007 issue.

“The entire Monitor Group team works hard everyday for those individuals and families we serve. This ranking is about our collaborative efforts on behalf of our clients and not the work of any one individual,” said Glenn Kautt, president of The Monitor Group. “Wealth Manager magazine has always been at the forefront of the financial planning industry. They truly understand what makes a wealth management firm successful.”
